

Barwa Bank Group participates at Qatar Career Fair

Doha, April 04, 2012 – The Barwa Bank Group, Qatar's fastest growing Shari'ah compliant banking group, is participating in the Annual Qatar Career Fair (QCF), from the 1st – 5th April at the Qatar National Convention Centre (QNCC).

Mr. Steve Troop, CEO, Barwa Bank commented, “The QCF offers us a great opportunity to engage with Qatari youth. As a fast-growing business, we are keen to attract Qatari talent interested in building a long-term career with Barwa Bank. We are committed to nurturing and supporting local talent through training, and professional development to create a talent pool of young bankers.

Ms. Fawziya Falamarzi, Acting Head of HR, Barwa Bank Group along with other Barwa Bank Group representatives are present at the stand to greet all visitors, offer career advice, provide job application forms and training guidance.

“The response so far has been wonderful. We've received a lot of interest from Qatari youth, including high school students, university students, graduates as well as experienced professionals. The QCF enables us to engage and interact with a huge potential new talent pool and familiarise them with potential job opportunities with Barwa Bank Group. The participation in this prestigious career fair is part the bank's on-going expansion plans and Qatarisation efforts. We will continue to be on the lookout for young Qatari talent and nurture them to become future banking professionals” Ms. Falamarzi concluded.
